

Buy 'em and Keep 'em WAR
BONDS

A Line Weekly Newspaper, Serving the Heart of Virginia's Great Dark Tobacco Belt. At Historic Appomattox, Virginia, Where War Ended. April 9, 1865.

Primary Election Tuesday

Next Tuesday is democratic primary election day in Virginia, as voters go to the polls to nominate candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

William M. Tuck, of Halifax is being opposed for the nomination for Governor by Moss Plunkett, of Roanoke. Mr. Tuck is the heavily expected candidate, in what is expected to a light vote over the State.

There is a three-cornered contest for lieutenant governor, with

Although the vote in the State is expected to be light, a rather heavy vote is expected in Apportionment County, due to the activity of supporters of the Tuck and Collins' candidacies.

STATEMENT FROM

L. PRESTON COLLINS WILLIAM M. TUCK

Data on Frozen Food Lockers

COLLINS' MANAGER.
Richmond, Va., July 30.-Pointing out that the primary election is only a few days away, William McL. Ferguson, State campaign manager for L. Preston Collins, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor,

Plant Given by Hudgins

in a pre-election statement today urged Virginia Democrats to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote.

"Regardless of whom they vote for," Mr. Ferguson said, "I feel that they should express themselves in this and all other elections on the issues of the day and on

on the Farm

(One of a Series)

Three farmers in Appomattox County who are cooperating with the Robert E. Lee Soil Conserva-

the merits and qualifications of the candidates. In no other way can we have in Virginia a practical, effective democratic government.

Mr. Ferguson took the occasion to review, briefly the issues of the current campaign and to reemphasize the qualifications of his candidate for the No. 2 post in the State government.

tion District are raising a total of nine acres of Hybrid Seed Corn for next year. They are J. P. Alvis, Jr., J. O. Davidson, and Garland Garrett. Increasing numbers of farmers are planting hybrid corn every year and these people will have a good local supply.

"The issues of this campaign are vital to the future of Virginia," he said. "Mr. Collins has recognized this fact in the campaign and he has proposed a program for the future which embraces the primary needs of an expanded educational program."

Large numbers of Appomattox farmers will save red clover seed this year. Among them are T. H. Tanner, W. T. Nash and J. B. Drinkard.

George Shreve is getting ready to start his business for the winter.

within the means of the State and its localities and in line with the practical suggestions of the Deny Commission's report; a practical system of assistance to the returning members of the armed forces; full development of the State's agricultural and other natural resources and the wise will be the third year that he has cut it and he likes the hay, as his cows produce better when he feeds it. As the kudzu was planted on a field that had had the soil taken off for Highways, Mr. Ruffin affirms a good return

"As a veteran of the last war with 17 months of active service overseas, Mr. Collins is familiar with most of the problems which confront the service man and woman returning to picking up the

from a field that ordinarily would not produce much.

Tomato

The average locker will store about 300 pounds of food. Each locker has a special lock and the renter keeps the key.

CUTTING ROOM.—With normal temperature. This is the warm room of the plant. Here all products are cut, wrapped, dated,

Mr. Ferguson avoided any prediction as to the outcome of the voting Tuesday, except to express his confidence that Mr. Collins will win the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor by an impressive plurality.

Cannery Will Open

(The Appomattox Tomato Canning factory plays to open today, otherwise prepared for freezing and storing.

Who may use it? Chilling vices may be used by anyone the community for a small

Any person who wishes rent a locker.

Baseball Schedule

It was started this week by W. M. Morris, manager. Beginning next week the canning factory will receive tomatoes the first five days each week during the season.

Mr. Morris states that unless damaged by recent excessive rain, there is an excellent prospect for a good crop. He estimates that

Quick freezing service and processing are available to all local renters.

What does it cost?

The usual rent for a locker is $10 to $12 a year.

The Lee Theatre baseball team won both games played over the week-end, winning from Brookline here Saturday 9 to 5, and winning from Perkins Park of Lynchburg 3 to 1 in a five-inning game which was the second game of a double header Sunday. The early game was rained out in the fourth

there are upwards of 80 acres of tomatoes to be harvested for the factory.

Processing charges amount about 1 1-2c a pound. This includ cutting, wrapping, and freez
The cost for a family of might be about $25 a year.

(Note: more on this subject
be published. R. B. Hudgins,

Next Sunday, August 5, there will be a double-header, the first at 2:15 between the

Wet Month

July was marked by heavy rainfall in the State of Virginia. The official rainfall for Appomattox County was 8.88 inches, of which 2.29 fell Tuesday night.

B. G. Anderson, Alfred Price, S. Booth, W. C. Dudley, and J. B. Terry are on a committee having further information.)

Laval lodged in Paris cell.

Senators seek representation

gump at 2:15, between Theatre and Coates Dry Clean
of the Class A City League, Lynchburg. Dave Cyrus will p ably pitch for the local te
At 4 P. M. Heating Service play Cullen, with Ed Vassar ably pitching against Willi Watts, lefthander.

Richmond had the heaviest rainfall on record for a single month, with 16.07 inches, topping the record for one month that had held since 1889.

Although the 8.88 inches here was heavy, excessive damage was

Congressman Woodrum to tire from House of Representatives announced this week.

Three chiefs end parley and route to own countries.

Living costs now at a war-t not done, according to available reports.

Living Coals Now in peak.